

Organisational Structure of MAS

MAS Executive Committee

- is elected every three years by the MAS commission
- is responsible for the administrative work of the commission
- is composed of 4 persons: president, vice-president, communication officer, treasurer

MAS Commission

- is open to all persons interested in medical anthropology who have acquired a SAA membership
- is composed of active members who participate in 2 – 3 commission meetings per year and organise events on a rotational basis
- represents various disciplines; represents students, prospective or advanced researchers and practitioners

IKMAS (Interest Group MAS)

- passive membership
- receives information on MAS activities

